Peter J. Titre Memorial Fundraiser

God Bless The Troops is honored to help raise funds for Monarch Hospice & Palliative Care in the memory of Peter J. Titre, the late father of God Bless The Troops Founder, Mark Titre. Following a valiant fight, Peter passed away on March 5th 2011 from cancer. Monarch Hospice & Palliative Care provided excellent care not only to Peter but continued to care for his family.

Monarch Hospice & Palliative Care is a select team of highly skilled compassionate professionals who are dedicated to providing premier end-of-life care, and act as advocates of patient's rights, values and personal choices. They serve and fulfill the physical, emotional, social and spiritual needs of all persons experiencing loss and illness.

God Bless The Troops is a local ministry honoring Gold Star Families who have endured The Ultimate Sacrifice of their Fallen Hero.

Mr. Titre, a Navy Veteran himself, was God Bless The Troops biggest supporter and believed in their mission. To honor his life, military service, and in support of God Bless The Troops we are donating our newest release entitled America's Valor. All of the proceeds will go to support Monarch Hospice & Palliative Care's tradition of caring for our loved one's final journey home.

Tickets are $5 dollars each.

The winner will be announced on the one-year anniversary of Peter's Passing. (March 5th 2012)

Tickets are available from: Mark Titre – Founder GBTT 847-867-1944

Checks can be made payable to Monarch Hospice and mailed to:

GBTT, PO Box 173,
South Elgin, IL 60177

America's Valor framed print was made possible by Maxine Titre

Thank you in advance for your generosity.
